licences |

When you purchase a TYPETYPE™ package or single font, you automatically acquire a single-user license, permitting you to use it on one computer. If you wish to use the font on more than one computer, you must purchase an additional Multi-User license. The price of a Multi-User license varies, depending on the number of CPUs you are going to use the fonts.

- > 2-5 CPUs = regular price × 2 (f.e. € 30.- × 2 = € 60.-)
- > 6-25 CPUs = regular price × 3 (f.e. € 30.- × 3 = € 90.-)
- > 26-100 CPUs = regular price × 4 (f.e. € 30.- × 4 = € 120.-)
- > 101-300 CPUs = regular price × 6 (f.e. € 30.- × 6 = € 180.-)

Please contact us to inquire about Multi-user licensed for over 300 CPUs

If you have already bought a package and you wish to upgrade, then you must simply present the proof-of-purchase and require the upgrade.

i'd like to thank:

my wife (for her patience), my kids (for all the fun and lots of inspiration), my brother (for working with me, which sometimes wasn't easy), simon schmidt and peter bruhn (for their support at any time), peter bilak (for help with the license text) and of course the linotype corporation (without them, this foundry would have been named hellvetica).

about |

TYPETYPE™ is the digital typefoundry of the signalgrau designbureau. one of the partners, dirk uhlenbrock, is developing typefaces since 1998. after publishing loads of fonts for free via eyesaw and fontomas (and a few commercial ones at fountain) he has decided to start with this new type foundry called TYPETYPE™ to promote and sell his own typefaces.

i'd never call myself a typographer, i'm just an illustrator who likes to develop signs that end up in full alphabets.
